

John J. Marshall (1862–1944)
Articles on Belfast Street-Names
published in the Belfast Telegraph 1940–41

(33 articles plus correspondence)

- 30/12/40, p.4 The Stories Behind Our Streets (Academy Street – Arkwright Street)
- 31/12/40, p.4 Ballymacarrett Once Inspired A Poet (Bank Street – Baroda Street / Parade)
- 01/01/41, p.4 A Belfast Street’s Link With A Prison Raid [Barrack Street] (Battenberg Street – Brown Square / Street)
- 02/01/41, p.4 The Mystery of Shaw’s Bridge (Beersbridge, Ormeau Bridge, Long Bridge, Queen’s Bridge, Shaw’s Bridge, Bridge End, Bridge Street) (not incorporated into transcript)
- 03/01/41, p.4 Where Belfast Used To Keep Its Gunpowder [Callender Street] (Bunker’s Hill – Castle Arcade)
- 04/01/41, p.4 This Belfast Street Was Meant To Be A Canal [Chichester Street] (Castle Market – Cliftonville Road)
- 06/01/41, p.4 The Belfast Square With Only Two Sides (College Square North and East – Cromac Street)
- 07/01/41, p.4 A Belfast Street’s Link With A Royal Romance (Dagmar Street – Donegall Place)
- 08/01/41, p.4 The Bleakest Street in the Bleak North (Donegall Road – Dunbar Street)
- 09/01/41, p.4 Amid the Haunts of Belfast’s Old-Time Conspirators (Entries) (not incorporated into transcript)
- 10/01/41, p.6 More Stories of Belfast’s Byways (Entries cont.) (not incorporated into transcript)
- 11/01/41, p.4 Belfast’s “Half-Bap Field” [Carlisle Circus] (letter in reply to readers’ queries/comments, winding up first series)
- 17/01/41, p.6 A Belfast Thoroughfare’s Link With A Famous Stage Beauty [Fortwilliam Park, Lily Langtry] (Fashoda Street – Francis Street)
- 20/01/41, p.4 Where A Titled Irish Fugitive Found Haven [Lord Edward Fitzgerald] (Frederick Street – Glengormley)
- 22/01/41, p.4 Belfast’s Gooseberry Corner (Glentoran Street – Haypark Avenue and harbour dock names)
- 24/01/41, p.4 How The Streets of Belfast’s “Holy Land” Got Their Names (Hercules Street – Holy Land)

- 27/01/41, p.4 This Belfast Street Got Its Name from a Novel [Lilliput Street] (Hopefield Avenue – Limestone Road)
- 29/01/41, p.4 Names Our Streets Enshrine (Long Lane – May Street)
- 31/01/41, p.6 My Lady’s Road Was Made for a Marchioness (May’s Dock – McClure Street)
- 03/02/41, p.4 When Belfast Was A Village (North Street – Ormeau Road)
- 05/02/41, p.4 The Belfastman Who Was Nicknamed After A Street [Jubilee Wilson] (Ormiston Crescent – Pim Street)
- 07/02/41, p.4 The Haunts of Belfast’s Old Time Idlers [Pound Street] (The Plains – Queen’s Square)
- 10/02/41, p.4 The Home of Three Churches, a Poet and a Theatre [Rosemary Street] (Ravenhill Road – Royal Avenue)
- 10/02/41, p.5 More About Pim Street (letter from reader Thomas Moore, 28, Roe Street)
- 12/02/41, p.4 The Riddle of Sandy Row (Sans Souci Park – Sandy Row)
- 14/02/41, p.6 Where Our Grandfathers Found Romance [Buttermilk Loney = Skegoneill Avenue] (Shaftesbury Square – Skegoneill Avenue / Drive/ Street) (some details of history of Skegoneill, murder of Earl of Ulster missing from transcript)
- 17/02/41, p.4 When Smithfield Had a Lammas Fair (Smithfield – Sugarfield Street)
- 19/02/41, p.4 The Avenue Named After a Murdered Man [Twaddell Avenue] (Talbot Street – Verner Street)
- 21/02/41, p.6 When Belfast Was A Village (Vicinage Park – Victoria Square = Police Square = Poultry Square)
- 24/02/41, p.4 This Belfast Street Is Linked With A Romance [Waring Street, “Varina”] (Victoria Street – York Street)
- 26/02/41, p.4 Heroes of Poetry and Fiction Name Belfast Streets (Astoria Gardens – Oberon / Titania Street)
- 28/02/41, p.6 Belfast’s Permanent Floral Display (Ashdale Street – Walnut Street and many others) (Not incorporated into transcript and not included in main index. Unlike the other articles, the vast majority of street-names in this article are merely listed but not explained.)
- 03/03/41, p.4 Statesmen Who Named Belfast Streets (Salisbury Street – Aughrim Street) (some of these streets not incorporated into transcript)
- 05/03/41, p.4 Belfast-Owned Derby Winner Set Lead (Castlereagh Road, Orangefield, Loopbridge)

07/03/41, p.6 Empire Battle Memories (Alma Street – Carrington Street) (not incorporated into transcript)